was getting beat by the officer with the flashlight, only [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was present. The police had already taken [REDACTED] out of the residence. [REDACTED] never attempted to strike any officer during this incident. As a result of this incident [REDACTED] stated that the inside of [REDACTED] mouth is injured from when [REDACTED] was hit with the flashlight and that skin is off [REDACTED] knees and elbow from when the officers stood on [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] further stated that as a result of this incident, [REDACTED] has no feeling in three of [REDACTED] fingers on [REDACTED] left hand. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] has no feeling because [REDACTED] was picked up by the handcuffs. [REDACTED] cannot identify which officer picked [REDACTED] up by the handcuffs. [REDACTED] viewed police personnel photographs from Unit 004. [REDACTED] was unable to positively identify any officer relative to [REDACTED] allegations.

Witness, [REDACTED] stated that on the date and time in question, [REDACTED] went over to [REDACTED] residence to pick up some movies that [REDACTED] had lent [REDACTED]. The apartment was open so [REDACTED] in. [REDACTED] picked up the movies and was about to leave when [REDACTED] called to [REDACTED] from the kitchen. [REDACTED] went to the kitchen at which time [REDACTED] showed [REDACTED] the back of [REDACTED] head from which [REDACTED] was bleeding. At that point, [REDACTED] came into the kitchen and told [REDACTED] to leave. [REDACTED] began to act violent and kept trying to get at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] to call the police and [REDACTED] ran to [REDACTED] residence and did so. Prior to the police arriving, [REDACTED] went back to the residence and [REDACTED] began to yell at [REDACTED] to leave. [REDACTED] then grabbed [REDACTED] by the arm and removed [REDACTED] from the premises. [REDACTED] went back to [REDACTED] residence and called the police again. Several marked squad cars arrived on the scene and one of the officers asked [REDACTED] if [REDACTED] had a gun. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] did not know and the police told [REDACTED] to stay in [REDACTED] apartment. [REDACTED] did not witness the arrest of [REDACTED].

In her report, Sergeant Johanna Hamel, Star #1573 related that on the date and time in question she responded to a request for a Supervisor at the location of [REDACTED] after hearing Beat 426 (Police Officer Doig and Police Officer Maloblocki) broadcast a possible hostage situation. While proceeding to the location, a 10-1 was called by the dispatcher for that location. Sergeant Hamel and Beat 424 (Police Officer Butler and O'Callaghan) arrived at the same time and she noticed that Beats 426 and 421 (Police Officer Carrillo and Police Officer Murawski) along with Ambulance #9 were already on the scene. A large group of people on the street informed them that the police were in the back house fighting with an offender. Sergeant Hamel and Beat 424 proceeded to the back house. At the top of the steps was a paramedic with [REDACTED] now known to be [REDACTED] who was bleeding from the head. On entering the house she saw the officers assigned to Beat 426 and Beat 421 struggling with a [REDACTED] now known to be [REDACTED]. The officers were trying to control and cuff [REDACTED] who was kicking and writhing on the floor defeating the efforts of the officers. Two of the officers held [REDACTED] legs while the other two officers attempted to cuff [REDACTED]. Sergeant Hamel removed a [REDACTED] gave [REDACTED] to the victim, [REDACTED] and then closed the door and held it shut as the victim had earlier attempted to attack the officers from the rear. The officers were able to calm down the offender and lead [REDACTED] out to the wagon. At no time during the struggle were there ever more than six uniformed officers in the house. Sergeant Hamel never observed any officer using a flashlight to strike the offender, nor was the offender struck in any way. No officer ever ran out of the house, nor left until the offender was escorted to the squadrol. The offender never requested any medical attention at the scene nor did [REDACTED] seem to be in need of any. Several of the officers however, were treated by the paramedics at the scene for cuts and scratches. During her interview with the arrestee in the lockup, Sergeant Hamel observed a lump on the arrestee's forehead and swelling about the right wrist area. No other bruising or swelling was noted.

Paramedic Officer James McSweeney related that on the date and time in question, he and his partner, Felipe Velez responded to the rear of [REDACTED]. He met with a [REDACTED], now known to be [REDACTED], who stated that [REDACTED] called for an ambulance. [REDACTED] further informed him that a [REDACTED] now known as [REDACTED] had hit [REDACTED], now known to be [REDACTED] and that he would not let [REDACTED] out of the house. Mr. McSweeney heard a [REDACTED] screaming for help and he radioed in that they may have a possible hostage situation. Two officers now known as Police Officer Doig and Police Officer Maloblocki arrived on the scene at which time [REDACTED] came out on the porch. The [REDACTED] was still inside screaming and the officers told the [REDACTED] to come down the stairs. One came down right away but the other [REDACTED] now known to be [REDACTED] began calling the police "motherfuckers" and stated that he wasn't going anywhere. At that point, the two officers went up on the porch and [REDACTED] began swinging [REDACTED] arms around. The officers attempted to restrain [REDACTED] but [REDACTED] kept resisting and punching out at the officers. Other officers arrived and Mr. McSweeney told them that the offender was fighting with the police. Mr. McSweeney stated that there were approximately six uniformed officers on the scene and one female white Sergeant. The offender was still trying to fight the officers and they all went into an apartment. At that point, a [REDACTED] came outside. [REDACTED] had a laceration on the back of [REDACTED] head. This same [REDACTED] kept trying to keep the police away from the offender. Paramedic McSweeney attended to [REDACTED] and the offender was brought outside and placed in a squadrol. At no time did [REDACTED] hear the offender ask for any medical attention. [REDACTED] did not observe any injuries on the offender at this time. Once the offender was in the wagon, he and his partner treated three or four of the officers for cuts and abrasions that they received during this incident.

Paramedic Officer Felipe Velez stated essentially the same information. Mr. Velez stated that there were about six officers in the apartment trying to control the offender who kept fighting with them. A Sergeant, now known to be Sergeant Hamel, removed a [REDACTED] from the apartment. At that point, Mr. Velez began to treat [REDACTED] who told him that the offender had punched [REDACTED] and then hit [REDACTED] in the head with a chair. Shortly thereafter, the offender was escorted out of the apartment and placed in a squadrol.

Police reports filed in conjunction with this incident related that Officer Doig and Officer Maloblocki responded to a Battery in Progress. The officers were met by [REDACTED] and C.F.D. Ambulance #9 who related that the victim was being beat and they could not enter the house. When the officers entered the rear yard, they were met by the offender [REDACTED] who became extremely violent and swung at the officers with a closed fist several times. The necessary force was used to effect the arrest and the offender was transported to the 004th District. Upon further investigation, the victim [REDACTED] related that because [REDACTED] didn't have dinner cooked, the offender hit [REDACTED] about the head and body and struck [REDACTED] over the head with a chair. The victim further stated that [REDACTED]. A copy of the Lockup Receiving Record indicated that [REDACTED] had no obvious pain or injury. After being printed and placed in a cell, the arrestee asked for medical attention for injuries to [REDACTED] face and wrist. The offender was transported to the hospital (South Chicago) on 11 Sep 92. Records indicate that [REDACTED] was removed from detention at 2320 hours. Photographs taken of the complainant show no obvious signs of injury.

A copy of the Emergency Department Report was obtained from South Chicago Hospital. This copy indicated that [REDACTED] complained of knots on head and stated that [REDACTED] was hit upside the head by police with flashlights. The results of an examination of the left forearm revealed no fracture or other abnormality. The examination of the right knee revealed no fracture, dislocation or other abnormalities. The diagnosis is listed as multiple contusions.

All of the accused officers denied the allegation made against them. Officer Doig reported that when he met the complainant at the scene, the complainant stated that this was [REDACTED] house and [REDACTED] can do whatever [REDACTED] wants to. Officer Doig attempted to do a protective pat down search for safety when the complainant pushed Officer Doig into the doorway. Officer Doig reported that he attempted to use a wrist lock in order to place the complainant under arrest. He denied that he ever stood on the complainant's body during this incident.

Officer Maloblocki also denied the allegation. Officer Maloblocki reported that when Officer Doig went upstairs to where the complainant was standing and attempted to place [REDACTED] under arrest for domestic battery, the complainant swung at Officer Doig and a struggle ensued. Officer Maloblocki then went to assist along with the other officers who had arrived at the scene. The complainant was swinging and kicking and refusing to be handcuffed. Officer Maloblocki reported that his only physical contact with the complainant was to grab [REDACTED] left arm and attempt to restrain it so that [REDACTED] could be handcuffed.

Officers Butler and O'Callaghan reported essentially the same information. Officer Butler reported that when he and his partner (O'Callaghan) arrived on the scene, he observed other officers struggling with the complainant who was trying to defeat the arrest. Officer Butler reported that his only physical contact was to hold the complainant's right arm behind [REDACTED] back in order to be handcuffed. Officer O'Callaghan reported that [REDACTED] arrived on the scene along with Sergeant Hamel. Officer O'Callaghan reported that [REDACTED] assisted the other officers by holding the complainant's legs to the ground so that [REDACTED] would not kick any officers. Officer O'Callaghan denied the allegation made by the complainant.

Officers Carrillo and Murawski reported essentially the same information. Officer Carrillo reported that when he arrived on the scene, he was informed by the paramedics that the offender was fighting with the police in the back house. Officer Carrillo reported that he and his partner Officer Murawski secured the offender's arm as cuffs were placed on [REDACTED]. Both Officer Carrillo and Officer Murawski denied the allegation made against them.

All of the accused officers denied that any officer on the scene had or used a flashlight during this incident.

CONCLUSION:

This investigation revealed that [REDACTED] had physical contact with the officers on the scene. The paramedics related that [REDACTED] resisted the attempts by the officers and that [REDACTED] was combative and struggling. All of the officers reported that the complainant resisted their attempts to be handcuffed and that necessary force was used to effect the arrest. [REDACTED] complained that the officers stood on [REDACTED] body while [REDACTED] was inside of the residence. Due to the lack of independent witnesses, there is insufficient evidence to support that claim. Furthermore, this investigation did not reveal that the officers used excessive force during the arrest of the complainant. It is therefore recommended that the allegation made by the complainant be Not Sustained and that this case be closed.

As reported on page 1 of this report R/Sgt was assigned as Supv. 420 on the 3rd Watch on today's date. At apprx. 1858 hrs. R/Sgt. monitored a radio assignment to Bt.#424 of a battery in progress at [REDACTED] and proceeded in that direction within about a minute of the original broadcast Bt. 426 stated that it was a hostage situation and requested a supervisor R/Sgt. responded. At 1901hrs a 10-1 was called by the dispatcher for that location while R/Sgt. and Bt. 424 were about two blocks away. R/Sgt. and Bt.424 arrived at the location at the same time. R/Sgt. noticed that two other marked cars where there Bt.426 & 421 along with CFD Amb. #9. A lange group of people were in front of the location and they informed us that the police where in the back house fighting with an offender. R/Sgt. and 424 proceeded to the back house. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. At the bottom of the steps a [REDACTED] was laying face down on the ground seemingly being attended by one of the paramedics, at the top of the steps was the other paramedic with a [REDACTED] who was bleeding from the head. They waved us up the steps and into the house. As R/Sgt. passed the paramedic on the stoop he stated that there was a [REDACTED]. On entering the house R/Sgt. saw the officers assigned to Bt. 426 & 421 struggling with a [REDACTED], trying to control and cuff him. During the struggle they had fallen into the house into a small area between the south wall and an ellipitical glass coffee table. The offender was kicking and writhing about on the floor defeating the efforts of the police officers to control and cuff [REDACTED]. Two of the officers held [REDACTED] legs while the other officers attempted to cuff [REDACTED]. In order to cuff [REDACTED] two seperate sets of cuffs had to be used, linking them together behind his back. Durin, this time the F/WH, the victim, became upset and attempted to attack the officers from the rear. R/Sgt. discovered that the [REDACTED] and removed [REDACTED] from the house and gave [REDACTED], the victim, and the paramedic and then closed the door and held it shut. The offender having been cuffed the officers were able to talk to [REDACTED] and calm [REDACTED] down until [REDACTED] was calm enough to let up and recuff correctly and then led out to the wagon. At no time during the struggle were there ever more then 6 uniformed male officers in the house. R/Sgt. never observed anyone using a flashlight to strike the offender, nor was the offender struck in other way by the officers. No officer every ran out of the house, nor left until the offender was escorted to the squadrol. R/Sgt did not note any bruises or swelling on the offender at the scene, several of the office rs however were treated by the paramedics for cuts and scrapes to their hands incurred while attempting to cuff the offender. The offender never asked for medical attention at the scene nor did he seem to be need h<sup>f</sup> same. It should be noted that the offender is a very well [REDACTED] with a great deal of strength as a result of his weight lifting and construction work. It should also be noted that R/Sgt. is a white female that would be very hard to see as a male.

Q. What is your age, date of birth and Social Security Number?

ing my [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] does not have to listen to what I was saying. So, I tried to tell [REDACTED] to stay out of the conversation because it does not concern [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] jumped up in my face like [REDACTED] was going to hit me or something so I told [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] would have to leave. [REDACTED] said that she was not going nowhere and sat back down on the couch. [REDACTED] started arguing and [REDACTED] started arguing and I was trying to get to leave. I grabbed [REDACTED] by the arm and took [REDACTED] to the front door and put [REDACTED] out of the door. About a half an hour later, here comes all kinds of police people. They came with their guns out and asked where is the gun that you have. I told them that I didn't have a gun. They told me to come and get down on the ground. I said, "what for" and what is the problem. There were about fifteen or more officers there. [REDACTED] was standing on the front steps and they made [REDACTED] lay face down. At that time I was on the top landing. They grabbed me and took me in the house. He patted me down to search me and then he grabbed me by my ankles and I fell to the floor. He then hit me five or six times with his flashlight. He hit me five or six times across my head. I tried to get up and they all stood on my body, my neck, my knees and my chest and arms. They were standing all over me. There had to be at least six officers standing on me. But there was only one officer that was beating me. The rest of them were standing on me. He was a male/white, in uniform, blondish hair and heavyset. He was about 5'9 and weighed about 200 pounds. I told him that I got his badge number and he then ran out of the door. He was wearing a blue shirt and he ran out of the door. About fifteen of them then were looking through the house for guns and drugs. So, then after they could not find anything, they had a paddy wagon come around the back. They put me in the paddy wagon and took me to the station. I asked the officers at the station to give me medical attention but they refused. I don't know if I asked the arresting officers or the transport officers because there were so many of them I don't know who I asked. I didn't get to the hospital till way later. They let me go from the hospital. I did not actually get the star number of the officer that beat me.

Q. What were you arrested for?

A. They said something about Disorderly.

Q. Describe your injuries.

A. The skin is off my knees and my elbow from them standing on me. I have no feeling in three of my fingers in my left hand. That is from when I was handcuffed and they picked me up by the handcuffs. I don't know which officer picked me up by the handcuffs because there were so many officers there. The inside of my mouth is hurt from when the officer with the flashlight was beating me in the mouth. I went to South Chicago Hospital and was treated and released from there.

Q. Was there any female officers on the scene?

A. Yes, I just saw one but there could have been more. I don't know what color shirt she had on.

Q. Could you identify the officer that hit you with the flashlight?

A. Yes.

Q. And you are not certain which officers you asked for medical treatment?

A. There was a Captain there, a male/white wearing a white shirt and I asked him for medical treatment and to loosen the handcuffs but he told the officers just to take me to jail.

Q. And the officer who hit you with the flashlight is the officer that ran out of the house?

A. Yes

Q. Did you at any time attempt to strike any of the officers on the scene?

A. No, I never attempted to hit anybody.

Q. Who was in the house when the officers were standing on you and the one officer was hitting you with the flashlight?

A. It was just me and [REDACTED]. They had already taken [REDACTED] out of the house. They took me in the house so that I would have no witnesses to this.

Q. Is there anything you wish to add to this statement?

A. They took me in the house so that no one could see that they were beating on me. That is the reason that they took me out of the back door too.

Q. After reading this statement of three pages and finding that it contains the responses that you have given, will you sign it?

A. Yes

[REDACTED] decided that [REDACTED] did not want to sign the statement and would not read the statement. [REDACTED] stated that he wanted his lawyer to review the statement before he signed it.

SUBJECT: Interview of Paramedic James MCSWEENEY, File #15375, Badge #
6367, Assigned to Ambulance #9, telephone #768-0855.

On 29 Sep 92 at approximately 1720 hours, Paramedic James MCSWEENEY responded to a telephone message left at the Fire Department and telephoned the undersigned at the Office of Professional Standards.

At this time Mr. MCSWEENEY stated in essence, but not verbatim as follows. On 11 Sep 92 at approximately 1900 hours, he and his partner, Felipe VELEZ responded to the rear of [REDACTED]. When they arrived on the scene a [REDACTED] who stated that [REDACTED] called for an ambulance informed them that a man had hit [REDACTED] and that he would not let [REDACTED] out of the house. Mr. MCSWEENEY could hear [REDACTED] screaming for help and he radioed in that they may have a hostage situation and he waited for the police who arrived immediately. Two male white uniformed officers were the first on the scene. They came to the rear at which point [REDACTED] came out on the porch. [REDACTED] was still inside screaming and the officers told the [REDACTED] to come down the stairs. One of the [REDACTED] came down right away and layed on the ground. The other [REDACTED] began calling the police "motherfuckers" and stated that he wasn't going anywhere. At that point, the police went up on the porch and [REDACTED] began swinging arms around. The officers attempted to restrain [REDACTED] but [REDACTED] kept resisting and punching out at the officers. At this point, other officers arrived on the scene and Mr. MCSWEENEY told them that the offender was fighting with the police and one of the officers called in a 10-1.

Mr. MCSWEENEY stated that approximately six uniformed officers were on the scene and one female white Sergeant. He stated that the officers arrived within minutes of each other. The offender was still trying to fight the officers who were on the porch and they all went into an apartment. At that time a [REDACTED] came outside. [REDACTED] had a laceration on the back of her head. This same [REDACTED] was attempting to keep the police off of the offender at one point. [REDACTED] attempted to physically keep the offender from being arrested. Once the offender and the police were inside of the apartment Mr. MCSWEENEY was attending to the [REDACTED] when they brought the offender outside and placed him in a wagon. At no time did he hear the offender ask for medical attention. He did not observe any injuries on the offender at this time. He at no time heard the offender ask for [REDACTED] handcuffs to be loosened. He does remember a male/white Sergeant on the scene but could not recall if the Sgt. was ever inside of the apartment during this incident because he did not go inside of the apartment.

Mr. MCSWEENEY further stated that once the offender was inside of the wagon, he and his partner treated three or four of the officers for cuts and abrasions that they had received during this incident. He also gave the female Sergeant additional bandaids for other officers who had been injured in their attempts to restrain the offender. Mr. MCSWEENEY stated that he remembers treating the first two officers that arrived on the scene for cuts on their hands.

Mr. MCSWEENEY had no other information relative to this incident except to stated that he observed no officer physically abuse the offender during this incident.

On 29 Sep 92 at approximately 1840 hours, Paramedic Felipe VELEZ responded to a message left at the Fire Department and telephoned the undersigned at the Office of Professional Standards.

At this time Mr. VELEZ stated in essence, but not verbatim as follows. On 11 Sep 92 at approximately 1900 hours, he and his partner, James MCSWEENEY responded to [REDACTED]. At this time, they were met by the [REDACTED] who called the Fire Department. [REDACTED] told them that the offender would not let [REDACTED] out of the house and that [REDACTED] had hit [REDACTED] head with something. The police arrived at which time they told [REDACTED] who had come out on the porch to come down the stairs. One of the [REDACTED] came right down and layed on the ground. The other [REDACTED] refused to come down. Two male white uniformed officers went up on the porch at which time the offender started swinging his arms and pulling away from the officers. The victim then came out and she was screaming. Several other officers arrived on the scene and they attempted to restrain the offender who kept jerking away and who refused to be handcuffed.

Mr. VELEZ further stated that about six officers were in the apartment trying to control the offender who kept fighting with them. A female Sergeant was there and she removed [REDACTED] from the apartment and then closed the door. At that point, Mr. VELEZ began to treat the victim who told him that the offender had punched [REDACTED] and then hit [REDACTED] in the head with a chair. Shortly thereafter, the offender was brought out of the apartment in handcuffs and placed inside a squadrol. At that point, Mr. VELEZ and his partner treated about three or four of the officers for cuts and abrasions on their hands.

Mr. VELEZ stated that he witnessed no officer physically abuse the offender during this incident and that he never heard the offender ask for medical treatment.
